Dear Don,

The lot I think will interest Eric is the document signed by Washington and countersigned by Jefferson appointing of David Rittenhouse as first director of the Mint. The lot description is here: http://www.sothebys.com/en/catalogues/ecatalogue.html/2011/fine-books-and-manuscripts-n08755#/r=/en/ecat.fhtml.N08755.html+r.m=/en/ecat.lot.N08755.html/151/ . Unfortunately there is not much time as it comes up for sale tomorrow morning. Do let me know if Eric is interested.

And do congratulate him from me on his recent birthday!

With best wishes,

David

Dear Don:
At your suggestion David Redden contacted me about the sale at Sotheby's yesterday of the Jefferson signed Rittenhouse appointment as first Director of the US Mint. I contacted a friend or so to suggest raising funds to try to buy it for the American Numismatic Society in New York. The auction estimate was $15,000 to $25,000 for this Friday's sale. I do not know what happened. Thank you very much for letting me know as none of us had heard of the sale of the item previously.. Eric.
